CONSUMPTION

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Pople For the Week Beginning Dec. 3-Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle. me." The Lord's sur

In this passage of Scripture we have Paul's description of the Lord's supper. He had not been present when it was instituted. "He had not received it from Christ's disciples, but from Christ Himself. How or where he received the ordinance from Christ we do not know, but we do have his explicit statement, "I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you."

1. The Lord's supper is a divine ordinance. It was instituted by Christ Himself in the supper room in Jerusalem at the close of the Feast of the Passover. It was the Lord Jesus Himself who, the night He was betrayed, took bread and brake and blessed it and commanded it to be eaten in remembrance of Him, and the cup and blessed This fact should attach peculiar interest and importance to this feast.

2. The Lord's supper is a memorial. "This do in remembrance of Me," said Christ. It is not only a memorial of Christ, but a memorial of that crowning act in His life by which the world was redeemed from sin-the death of Christ. "As often as ye eat this bread and drink this cup ye do show the Lord's death till He come." The necessity of such a memorial is due to the fact that the human heart is so prone to forget. We forget even our greatest benefactors with amazing ease. What Jesus instituted this ordinance to keep us in constant remembrance at least of known. the most stupendous event in the history of the world! Though we forget all else of the ages past, we should nev-er forget the death of Christ.

3. The Lord's supper is a symbol. The bread and wine are not actually changed into the body and blood of found dead in o Christ. Transubstantiation is super- fired 500 rounds. stition and absurdity. The elements of the communion are but symbols. They are material types of spiritual attain ments. Christ is spiritually received by faith by those who partake of this ordinance in accordance with Christ's appointment. The Holy Spirit applies to our souls the blessings contained in this Christian festival. And thus alone can we be blessed in partaking of these sa-cred emblems. There is nothing efficacious in the elements or in him who administers them, but when properly received the Holy Spirit blesses them to the good of our souls.

4. The Lord's supper is a command.
"This do," said Christ. He left no alternative. It is as direct a command as can be found in the word of God. The indifference of multitudes to it who profess to believe in Christ is inexplainable. Many never observe it, refusing after follow guerrilla methods: to identify themselves with God's people in the church where alone it is observed. Others who unite with the church are often careless and indifferent to this great command. How can we districts seem to be filled with small neglect or ignor in

Disappointment. God keeps a school for His children here on earth, and one of His best tenchers is disappointment. My friend, when you and I reach our Father's house, we shall look back and see that the sharp voiced, rough visaged teacher, disappointment, was one of the best guides to train us for it. He gave us hard lessons; he often used the rod; he often led us into thorny paths; he sometimes led us down into the valley of the death shadow, but never did the promises read so sweetly as when spelled out by the eye of faith in that very valley. Nowhere did he lead us so often or teach us such sacred lessons as at the cross of Christ. Dear old rough handed teacher! We will build a monument to

For the Sake of Preaching. Ministers often preach for the sake of preaching, not for the purpose of being heard. God's voice was mistaken for thunder. Men heard Him, although they failed to catch the meaning of what He said. There is a force in being heard. Great preachers have usually great voices. John the Baptist mus have had a marvelous speech power to have been heard by the vast multitudes that thronged his ministry. The "still, small voice" could reach a single auditor alone in the mountain, but the multitudes are not moved that way. - Pres byterian Journal.
